

THE GREEN
TEMPLE

Relax, it's The Green Temple

Imagine a meeting, training or event and being happier, more motivated, more concentrated, more creative, more relaxed and healthier than ever before.

The Green Temple offers a truly unique and inspiring environment for you and your clients. Whether it's for a successful business meeting, workshop, training or a press event - at The Green Temple you're in good hands.

The Showcase of The Sustainable Future

The Green Temple is located at The Conscious Club, the showcase of the new sustainable future. The Conscious Club is the first public climate neutral canal house in Amsterdam. This former chocolate factory has been rebuilt with a super high-tech sustainable climate system and only natural products have been used to build a sacred space. Not only a conscious design but also one with soul through the amount of antique details and items with a story.

Doing Business In A Sacred Space

Always a great first impression.

Our canal house is truly an eye-catcher with its beautiful antique wooden entrance, and while it's not only impressive from the outside it's on the inside as well!

We believe in being of value - to ourselves, to nature, to the future and to you. Minimizing negative footprints to maximizing positive handprints. Whatever we do, we put love and care into it. With attention to every detail, friendly and flexible staff and a healthy organic environment, you will leave with more energy than you came.

The Green Temple

The Green Temple is sacred space of 90m² surrounded with organic building material, upcycled furniture, plants and a big green wall. The tables are in-house made from 300-year old oak floorboards from the famous Wester Tower - the same oak as they used for V.O.C. ships in 1700 and in ceilings of old Dutch churches. The antique glass room dividers are from the 19th century which gives The Green Temple its own unique feel.

A long, rustic wooden conference table is set with red chairs in a bright, modern meeting room. The room features large windows and a plant wall. A large green plant is visible on the left side of the room. The ceiling has exposed wooden beams and recessed lighting. The floor is a light-colored carpet. A glass block window is visible on the right wall.

The Green Temple has a 18m² plant wall. Our plant wall reduces CO₂ with a 100% and replaces it with O₂ (oxygen). It also reduces headaches and tiredness with 45%. Research has shown that indoor plants significantly improve the aspects of our indoor environment, from physically cleaner air to direct beneficial effects on psychological health, task performance, illness reduction and productivity. We're making sure your meeting is always energetic!

The Zen Hall

The Zen Hall is used for daily classes at The Conscious Club in the morning and evening. Between this schedule our Zen Hall makes for a perfect break-out room or small meeting space. These organic clay plastered walls make sure the humidity is regulated naturally for optimal health. The roof of our Zen Hall carries 18 solar panels to fully cover the usage of electricity and the warm water in the building! A light and comfortable space surrounded by windows and hanging plants. Like the name says, a true zen paradise of 77m².
